SECONDARY AUTHORIZATION TO CHARGE USPTO DEPOSIT ACCOUNT

Sir:

The undersigned believes in good faith that all fees due with the present submission have been paid for by credit card via the enclosed Credit Card Payment Form (PTO-2038) and that these fees will be remitted to the USPTO by the credit card issuer upon credit card charge submission by the USPTO.

However, the nature of credit card payments leaves the remote possibility that the credit card issuer may not authorize the charge to the credit card specified on the enclosed Credit Card Payment Form (PTO-2038) for reasons either unknown or not existent at the time the Credit Card Payment Form is submitted.

In the unlikely event that the credit card charge is declined by the credit card issuer, the undersigned expressly authorizes the Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office to charge fees specified on the fee transmittal form, the attached credit card authorization form, and/or any other fee(s) required for timely consideration of this submission to the USPTO Deposit Account No. 503182, Deposit Account Name: Scholl Patent Agency, Inc.

This authorization to charge deposit account is of a secondary nature only, i.e., it is valid if, and only if, the USPTO is unable to charge the credit card specified on the enclosed Credit Card Payment Form (PTO-2038).
